JULY

REPUBLICAN.

JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 1, 1857.

FOR GOVERNOR.

A. B. MOORE,
OF PERRY COUNTY.

FOR CONGRESS.

J. L. M. CURRY,
OF TALLADEGA.

We are authorized to announce John Pollard, (residing in the eastern part of the county,) as a candidate for Representative of Benton County in the next Legislature.

We are authorized to announce G. W. Williams, as a candidate to represent Benton County in the Senatorial branch of the next Legislature.

We are authorized to announce MAJ. SPARTAN ALLEN, as a candidate for Representative of Benton County in the next Legislature.

We are authorized to announce J. J. BAUGH, Esq., as a candidate for Representative of Benton County in the next Legislature.

Examination.

The examination of the pupils of the Jacksonville Female Academy, mentioned in our paper of the 24th June, came off on Thursday and Friday last, greatly to the satisfaction of a numerous and intelligent audience, and to the credit of the competent and accomplished Principal, Miss HAWLEY, as well as her pupils, of every age and every study. Miss H., by her assiduous and self-sacrificing devotion to her indispensible useful and honorable employment, has proven herself to be one of the true heroines who scatter shining seeds to be gathered by the unknown reaper. It would be tedious to the reader to attempt a description of the examination of the various classes, and we must therefore content ourselves, by giving the reader the most vivid idea we can, in brief.

First came, the examination of the various classes, commencing with the smallest pupils, and continuing on through the higher branches to the end, interspersed with the reading of compositions in prose and poetry, all acquiring themselves with credit. On Friday night the Academy was crowded to overflowing to witness the accompanying and concluding exercises, consisting of the reading of compositions, vocal music by some of the pupils and several young men of our village, dialogues, group representing the seven stars, the Seasons, the Muses, Graces, &c. concluding with crowning of a Queen, surrounded by her Court, representing Music, Poetry, Sculpture, Painting, Astronomy, Philosophy, &c. The questions, responses and charges, in this scene, were very instructive and interesting, evincing a high degree of talent on the part of the unknown author.

The salutatory was read by Miss LECTURA CRAWFORD, and the Valedictory by Miss ANNA ABERNATHY, both very fine specimens of composition. We would be glad to procure copies of them, as well as many others for publication, and hope to be able to do so.

In conclusion it may be safely inferred, that if Miss Hawley's pupils would stand a good examination, after the hindrances, obstructions and irregularity of classes, occasioned by the prevailing sickness, they would have evinced under ordinary circumstances, a proficiency almost without parallel. We hope to see the Academy fully and liberally patronized at the very commencement of the next session.

Masonic Celebration.

The anniversary of St. John the Baptist, was celebrated at this place, by the Masonic fraternity, on Wednesday last; but the attendance was not as large as usual in consequence of other celebrations in the neighborhood. The ceremonies were conducted by fine Music by the Oxford Band. The Oration was delivered by Hon. B. F. Foster of Marshall, who in the course of his address gave some wholesome admonitions to Masons relative to their fraternal family and social duties, and administered some well merited rebukes to unworthy members. It is a pity but Masons would everywhere be obedient to the excellent precepts of the order and command it to the respect and confidence of mankind, instead of degrading it, as many of them do by conduct unworthy of a savage.

Hon. C. C. Clay.—We are pleased to see, that in most of the Counties of North and East Alabama as well as some in other portions of the State, the candidates for the Legislature have either voluntarily or in answer to calls, expressed their preference for the Hon. C. C. Clay for U. S. Senator. This faithful and well tried public servant truly deserves the almost unanimous approbation of the people which he is now receiving; he has boldly braved every storm—true to the constitution, and particularly to the south and his own native State. He has at the risk of his own personal popularity spoken a word against many extravagant appropriation bills, such as the extra pay to Gen. Scott, the revolutionary claims bill, and other schemes of public plunder, the offspring of northern cupidity, when other members shrunk back from the responsibility; and has thus, justly won the honorable distinction of being chiefly instrumental in their defeat, and saving to the government millions of dollars. His faithfulness in the past is a guarantee for the future, and fixes in him, the quiet and unwavering confidence of the people.

Mr. R. E. Needles notice of the reception of a new style of pictures, published in our last, was handed in too late for us to refer to specially, and we therefore now take the liberty to do so.

There are continual and important improvements going on in the Daguerrean art, both in the material and manner of execution, and it appears that Mr. Needles has called himself of the latest of these, and is prepared to accommodate the public with similar notices in the volume.

the new style pictures, on the most reasonable terms. Persons who may wish fine, life-like likenesses, can obtain the raised pictures, also pictures on enameled iron, glass, patent leather, paper, &c. by calling at his gallery on Grove street.

Independent Ticket.—In Talladega County it appears there is an independent democratic ticket for the Legislature in opposition to the regular nominees, consisting of J. W. Bishop for the Senate, and A. C. Wood, C. W. Roby and E. R. Wood for the House.

The democracy of Talladega have had a hard struggle for years to maintain the independence, and we fear that this movement will create so much dissension and division as to prove a death knell to their hopes of future success; and how it is to operate on the independent candidates themselves the election will prove.

We invite the special attention of stock holders, to the notice of the meeting at Columbiana, on the 8th of July next, and hope that all will be represented either in person or by proxy.

For the Republican.

I see in the last Sunny South, over the signature of DAVID MILLER, a call on the candidates, to know if they will support the Hon. C. C. Clay, for U. S. Senator.

In answer to this call, I take pleasure in informing Mr. MILLER, and the voters of Benton County, that I had the honor of introducing Mr. Clay's name in the nominating convention, and also of voting for him there, and at the time he was elected by convention of the two houses. I have been highly pleased and delighted, with his course since his election, the signal ability he has displayed, his stirring integrity and dignified manner; and should I be so fortunate as to be elected to a seat in the next Legislature, and the election for U. S. Senator, I will vote for Mr. CLAY again. But should any circumstance cause the nomination of some other gentleman, I shall feel bound to support the nominee of the Democratic Party.

Respectfully,
ASA SKELTON.

Ala. Benton City, June 16th, 1857.

For the Republican.

The friends of L. BELLWELL, Esq., wish to see his name announced as a candidate for a seat in the next Legislature.

His friend,
J. T. WILEY.

COL. W. B. MARTIN.

Will address the people at Cave Creek Post office (Gibbs), on Monday, the 6th of July, and at Mr. Polk on the 18th. Candidates for office will (also) attend.

MR. GRANT:

I see in other Counties that the people are calling on their Candidates to know who they are in favor of for United States Senator. Being satisfied that the Hon. C. C. Clay is decidedly the favorite of the people of the whole State, & especially of Benton County, I, together with other voters, wish to know of each candidate for the Legislature, whether or not he will support our gallant Clay. If his election should come up at the next session of the Legislature. This is not to advance the claims of any man that is not before us, but simply to do justice to a patriot and statesman. By answering the above the candidates will much oblige their friend and fellow-citizen.

DAVID A. MILLER.

Talladega Conference Institute.

The Trustees of this Institution met here on Thursday June 18 and Friday 19, and in an examination of its pecuniary affairs the following facts were elicited:

1. That at the Conference which met here in 1854, a contract was made with the Trustees of the Masonic Lodge, for the transfer of the property and assets to the Conference.
2. That this transfer was to be made in July 1855, but that before the time expired certain executions held against the property were procured to sale and it was sold by the Sheriff of Talladega Co. at public outcry in May 1855.
3. That the property was purchased by Messrs. Bacon, Morgan and Lindsay, whose deeds are recorded in records, and was held by them subject to redemption by the former owners or by any others who had the right to do so, until May 1857, when the time of redemption expired.
4. That these owners were now willing to sell the property for the sum of $12,000, and to give a mortgage.
5. Whereupon the friends of a Methodist School present at once set down their names to the Conference so long as a school of agriculture, of the wants of this community shall be kept in operation by that body, provided the whole amount of stock be taken, but if at any time the Conference shall cease to maintain the school, the stockholders shall have the right to sell the property for the sum of $12,000, and to give a mortgage.

B. B. RICE was appointed an agent to sell the remaining amount of stock $7,000, and to raise a contingent fund of $3,000 for the benefit of the school.

Crime at Santa Rita.—The Burlington Flag says:

Mr. J. H. Andrews, of this District, informs us that a few days since he was fishing; he had with him a small negro boy, who, mistaking a woman in a field, picked it up and was bitten on the thumb. Mr. A. had been frequently informed that the grand-father, one of our oldest settlers, who was a great hunter, had never failed to prevent any evil consequences resulting from a snake-bite, by washing the wound in water and at the same time squeezing out the poison. He, in this case, resorted to this cure. Holding the wounded member under water, he washed it for some time. The cure was completed; the thumb did not even swell.

PEARLS IN NORTH CAROLINA.—The Fayetteville (N. C.) Observer, in publishing a paragraph commencing the recent discovery of pearls in New Jersey, says:

"The reader of Hawley's History, Vol. 1, will find that Amadis and Barlowe, and Sir Richard Greenville, mention the discovery of pearls in the waters of North Carolina. Our eye rests at this moment upon pages 85, 114 and 115, where the fact is mentioned; and we believe there are other similar notices in the volume."

Arrival of the Steamer Indian.

QUEBEC, June 27.—The steamer Indian has arrived with Liverpool dates to the 17th inst. The Niagara arrived on the 14th.

Cotton was quiet at unchanged rates. Sales of three days 17,000 bales, including 2,000 to speculators and exporters. Broadstuffs were buoyant and holders advanced. Provisions and sugar dull. Rice quiet. Consols 93 1/2.

SECOND DESPATCH.

Holders of flour demand 6d to 1s. advance. Wheat advanced 1d. to 2d. Rosin dull, Rice quiet, Corn steady.

Political news is unimportant. The Disabilities bill was occupying the attention of Parliament. The Catholic amendment had been defeated by an immense majority, and the bill had been sustained on a test vote.

The London Times advocates the abolition of slavery in Cuba. The treaty of commerce between Russia and France had been signed.

Country meetings in regard to the supply of cotton had been held, and the Liverpool resolutions endorsed.

FRIGHTFUL DISASTER.

QUEBEC, June 27.—The steamer Montreal, having on board five hundred Scotch emigrants, was burnt near this city yesterday, and three hundred and fifty unfortunate were either burnt or drowned.

Columbus, Ohio, June 19.—The interest on the State debt of Ohio cannot be paid in consequence of a deficit in the State Treasury.

St. Louis, June 16.—Topeka dates to the 12th inst. have been received. There was a quarrel in both branches of the Legislature, which was basely engaged in reflecting the township organizations. Gov. Robinson's message had been sent in. The Legislature had not been disturbed so far.

New York, June 20.—The Black Warrior, from Havana, arrived, and reports that the Spanish fleet intended for Mexico was off the coast.

The barque Brodie hence for Mobile blew up at sea, but all the crew were saved.

The Sonora Victims.—It is stated in the Mexican papers that the whole number of Americans shot in Sonora is seventy. It was believed, also, that the few who escaped perished with hunger, thirst and exposure.

Murder—most foul and unnatural.

Mr. D. H. Wither, proprietor of the Fulton House, of this city, was shot last night by his own son, Wm. Wither. The ball entering his abdomen and lodging in his back bone, leaving no hope of recovery. The particulars of this horrid transaction, so far as we have been able to gather, were these: The young man, Wm. Wither, has been for some time past addicted to intemperance. On yesterday evening he and his father were closed in a room together. What transpired is not known; it is supposed, however, that the former reproved his son for his intemperate and disorderly course. Immediately after supper, Wm. Wither followed his father to his room, and shot him down in the presence of his wife and children—the mother, brothers, and sisters of the assassin.

He immediately sprung from the room, and made his escape through the darkness. The body lay on the floor, and was discovered by the young Wither at latest of 11 o'clock.

Mr. Wither's Death.

Mr. D. H. Wither, who was shot by his son, on an account of which we gave in our Thursday morning's paper, died on Friday night at 11 o'clock. No intelligence has yet been received of the murderer. He is a young man about 18 years of age, about five feet four or five inches high, weighing about 150 lbs; shoulders broad; hair sandy in color, to red, straight and long; face broad, and slightly peaked; he had on when he committed a blue cloth coat, light colored vest, red pants and black gaiter shoes. We know not what efforts are being made for his apprehension. No horrid crime as perpetrated should not be suffered to go unpunished.

The Transatlantic Telegraph and the Newspapers.

It having been suggested that the rate of messages over the oceanic wire will be a dollar a word, the New York Times estimates the cost of the despatches for the press at about a thousand dollars a day. Commenting on this, the Boston Bee says:

"This enormous expense will, of course, be divided among a great many papers in different proportions, but it must add greatly to the cost of publication, and, as the Times very properly suggests, must lead to what must come to pass, sooner or later—increase in the price of our leading journals." While everything else has been advancing in price, newspapers have remained unchanged, or have actually been sold at lower rates. The publishers relying upon the advertisement not only for all their profits, but for a large part of the expenses of publication. This is not a true system. The price of a paper ought not to be so low that an increase of circulation without an increase in advertising will be a disadvantage to the publisher. A paper should be sold at a price which will leave a distinct margin beyond the cost of the white paper and of the press work.

Fever Poison.—A man recently published by an English physician on the transmission of fevers, after referring to the value of thorough ventilation, light and cleanliness to disinfect clothes and apartments and to disperse infectious fever poison, he says:

"It is important to know regarding infection, that when not destroyed or dispersed in the air, it attaches itself and adheres with great tenacity to all articles of furniture—chairs, tables, drawers, &c. nesting in their innumerable pores, and unless these articles be scrubbed with a solution of chloride of lime, or exposed to a strong heat, or a free current of air for several hours, it may again become evolved, more virulently than at first, after the lapse of weeks. But it chiefly adheres to

SPANISH FLEET.—The steamship Black Warrior, which arrived at New York on the 20th, from Havana, reports that the Spanish fleet intended for Mexico was off the coast—so says a despatch to the Augusta Constitutionalist. Such being the case, the tocsin of war will soon be sounded in our sister Republic.

Huntsville Female College.

The Examination of the pupils of this Institution came off last week. We were invited to act as one of the examining committee, but pressing engagements prevented our attendance. We are informed by persons, who did attend, that the examinations were very fair & thorough, and that the pupils answered were generally, prompt and accurate, indicating careful and able instruction and mental discipline. The music pupils, generally, acquitted themselves in a manner highly creditable to their own diligence and spirit of emulation, and the skill and fidelity of Prof. Saroni, who stands pre-eminent as a performer and teacher. We have heard from persons of skill and ample opportunities of observation at home and abroad, that they never heard, South or North, so many good performers in any school.

The Commencement Exercises on Tuesday were exceedingly interesting to us, and, apparently, to the large crowd of citizens & strangers present. Notwithstanding the exercises lasted from 9 o'clock A. M. till P. M. the audience exhibited unabated interest to the last. The exercises consisted in (1.) Prætorial Address and an Essay on "Woman as she is"—by Miss A. H. Green, Giles Co., Tenn. (2.) Reports of Committees: 1. On the Examination—2. On the Character of the Institution—3. Essay—"Woman as she should be"—and Valedictory Address, by Miss Pheochorus Williams, of Morgan Co., Ala. (4.) Diplomas conferred on Misses Green and Williams. (5.) Oration by Rev. A. B. Erwin, D. D. (6.) Remarks by President Everhart on concluding the scholastic year. (8.) "Turner Musical Prize" awarded to Miss Josephine Clifton, by Hon. C. C. Clay, Jr., in behalf of the Committee, which consisted of two ladies and Prof. Saroni. (9.) Farewell Ode, composed and set to music expressly for the occasion, and sung by the whole School, in the following words:

I
Farewell is hard to say,
The heart shrinks back with pain, Last friends that part to-day, May never meet again.
Then let a song be given,
And in it breathe a prayer, For health and hope and heaven,
To all whose loves are here.

II.
We pray to God above,
That he our truth may keep,
In bonds of tender love, Eternal, pure and deep.
Farewell, then, though we sigh, We part to meet as friends,
If not below, on high,
Where friendship never ends.

(10.) Benediction by Rev. Dr. Erwin. The whole proceedings were agreeably interspersed with music on the piano or organ by Prof. Saroni and his pupils. The Essays embodied sound thoughts expressed in an agreeable, flowing style, unadorned with rhetorical flourishes, but furnished with rhetorical devices, and the pathos of sentiment, language, and tone of voice, in their addresses, drew tears to many an eye, and caused the Reports of the Committees to be highly complimentary to the pupils and teachers, and very gratifying to the patrons and friends of the Institution.

The Oration of Dr. Erwin was a classic, elegant and eloquent dissertation on "Woman—her sphere, mission and duty," replete with practical lessons of truth, and wisdom, and equal, if not superior to any address we have ever heard on the same subject, but exhibited slightness of mind, and was wrapped up in a heartily applauded.

The remarks of President Everhart to his scholars in the condition and prospects of his school, were well received and calculated to advance the College in public estimation.

It does not become us to express an opinion of the merits of the Hon. C. C. Clay, Jr.'s, extemporaneous remarks on awarding the musical prize. We trust it will not be considered indecent for us to state the fact, that the audience manifested a high degree of interest in his frequent and high praise, and it was, generally, pronounced a most appropriate and felicitous impromptu.—Daguerre.

But it chiefly adheres to cotton or woolen materials. The patient's body-clothes and blankets become saturated with it, like a sponge with water; and in airing these materials a mere passing breeze is not always sufficient to carry it away."

Seven Men Sentenced to Death by a Mob.

At Florence, Nebraska Territory, on the 25th of May, seven men were arrested by a mob, for what is called claim jumping—that is, settling down on sections of land already entered or claimed by other persons. They were tried at noon, by a club association, in the presence of the people of the town, and condemned to death by hanging.

Ropes were procured, and measures were taken for summarily carrying out the sentence. But there was an old gray headed man there, pleading for the life of his son, the staff of his age; and wives and sisters on their knees, imploring in heart-rending accents that their husbands and brothers might be spared; and their tears and prayers were not in vain.—Although a number of the crowd persisted, in fiery speeches, to advocate death, yet better counsels prevailed finally, and three of the offenders were liberated, on the condition that they would confess their fault, renounce all claim to the property which they had appropriated to their own use, and promise to be honest in future.—The other four were escorted across the river by a body of 150 citizens, and turned loose with a warning expressed in a resolution, that if they dared to set foot on the soil of Nebraska they would be hung to the first tree.

A GREAT AND GOOD MAN GONE.

The telegraph announced to us this morning the death of the Hon. A. P. Butler, United States Senator from South Carolina, yesterday, at his home, surrounded by his family and friends. Outside of his family circle, none will feel his bereavement more keenly than the people of Washington city, to all of whom he was a well known and by all of whom he was as ardently beloved as any of this Capital's permanent residents. His heart was ever in his hand. High and low, rich and poor, white and black—for all he always had a kind word in store, and in familiar intercourse with those around him here his impulsive and generous nature never failed to run in the mood of overflowing kindness of heart. He was, in season and out of season, without the slightest regard to politics, the ardent friend of all who deserved the friendship of a gentleman of his remarkable mind, attainments and character. There was less selfishness in his nature than in that of almost any other man ever in public life. Hence, in a measure, his so great personal popularity here. So far as the material interests of Washington city are concerned, as well as the influence of his bright genius, extensive learning and highly cultivated social qualities upon society in the Federal metropolis, the vacuum created by his death cannot be filled, from his own or any State, in our day and generation.—[Washington Star.]

A Sad Story.—A few days ago a worthy young German committed suicide, near Rochester, New York. The sequel is told in the following from a paper of the 10th inst.

The young woman Mary, for whom Theodore Marie Gantz committed suicide last week, by throwing himself before a locomotive, died this morning under circumstances which leave no doubt that the tragical end of her lover was the exciting if not the only cause of her death. It will be remembered, that Gantz committed the rash act on Tuesday morning and on Wednesday the letters were found explaining the cause of his death, namely, the loss of Mary's love. The body rested in North Clinton street, in the Sixth Ward. She was shown the letters of Gantz, and learned his sad fate on Thursday last. From that moment she was ill, and on Saturday she became seriously sick, requiring the attention of a physician. She continued to fail, and yesterday was much deranged. Last night bleeding was resorted to, but all was in vain, she expired at seven o'clock this morning. The young lady was 21 years of age, and of prepossessing appearance. Gantz had fallen violently in love with her and had been rejected.—He was a man of peculiar sensibilities, and was little calculated to meet destruction before he accomplished it.—The unfortunate girl appears to have been somewhat like him in this particular, although she did not resort to violence. She gave way to regret and self-accusation until she became a maniac and died. It is to be regretted that the course of true love did not run smooth, and thus save from premature graves two worthy young persons.

Mr. Editor: I have read in the Sunny South of June 27th, a question propounded to each one of the candidates for the Legislature, in Benton County, by Maj. D. Miller, whether or not he will support our gallant Clay, if his election should come on at the next Legislature.

In answer, I have to say, that I have a decided preference for the Hon. C. C. Clay for the Senate of the U. S. Congress. He is my first choice as a private friend and as a public officer. I would be in favor of his nomination, but would support the Democratic nominee.

this looked upon as a well-invented notion in Shirley, was written down by Charlotte with streaming eyes; it was the literal transcript of what Emily had done. The account of that tawny bull-dog with his straggled mane and long ears, which whistled, called "Keoper" in Shirley, was written in the same personage—a gift to Emily. With the gift came a warning.—"Keoper" was faithful to the depths of his nature as long as he was with friends; but he who struck him with a stick or whipped him, roused the relentless nature of the brute, who flew at his throat forthwith, and held him there till one or the other was at the point of death. Now Keoper's household fault was this.

He loved to steal up stairs and stretch his square, tawny limbs on the comfortable beds covered over with delicate white coun-terpanes. But the cleanliness of the parsonage arrangements was perfect, and this habit of Keener's was so objectionable, that Emily, in reply to Tabby's remonstrances, declared that if he was found again transgressing, she herself in defiance of warnings and his well-known ferocity of nature, would beat him so severely that he would never offend again. In the gathering dusk of an autumn evening Tabby came, half-triumphantly, half tremblingly, but in great wrath, to tell Emily that Keeper was lying on the best bed in drowsy voluptuousness. Charlotte saw Emily's volubility face and set her teeth on edge; she knew no one dared when Emily's eyes glowed in that manner out of the paleness of her face, and when her lips were so compressed into stone. She went up stairs, and Tabby and Charlotte stood in those gloomy passages below full of the dark shadows of coming night. They saw the same old things as before, but they felt the unwilling Keeper, his hind legs set in the heavy attitude of resistance, held by the "scuff of his neck," but growling low and savagely all the time. The watchers would faintly have spoken, but durst not, for fear of disturbing off Emily's attention, as usual, at the least provocation, about the enraged brute. She let him go, panting in a dark corner at the bottom of the stairs.

No time was there to fetch stick or rod, to bear of the straggling clutch at her throat, to bar her bare clinch; his struggle against her fierce rays was brief and fatal time to make, for he was dead in the language of the sufferer, she 'punished him' till his eyes were swollen up, and the half-lifted, stupefied breast was led to his accustomed lair, to have his swollen head fomented and cared for by the very Emily herself. The generous dogwood carried her no grudge: he loved her dearly, even after; he walked from her door to mourn for her, he could not sleep mourning for her, at the door of her empty room, and never, so to speak, rejoiced, dog fashion, after her death. He in his turn was mourned over by the surviving sister. Let us somehow hope, in half-Indo-Indian creed, that he follows Emily now; and when he rests, sleeps on some soft white and red dreams, untroubled, untroubled, awakens to the light of his shadow.

Our limits will not permit us to sketch the short but shining literary career of the three sisters. It began, just as the father's sight was getting dim, and the long debarb of the brother was drawing to its

And now the little, plain Yorkshire governess had become the talk of all the drawing-rooms of England, the sensations of the country being with literary people which drew her from the bleak moorlands of Haworth and the rude society of the West-Idlingers into the cultivated circles of London, and led her to visit the more picturesque and romantic portions of the island on which she lived. It is delightful to see Thackeray booming on her out of his large eyes and enormous spectacles, and kindly glance of recognition as she enters the room, and the beauty and fashion of the time. We find her assembled to hear him lecture, and to find the publishers who had rejected her earliest work "The Professor," anxiously waiting on her for another vivid, fascinating, original story.

In 1854 Charlotte Bronte was happily marked and the possibility of literary success to which a powerful reliance on the last few months of her uneventful yet singularly remarkable life. It inspires us with a melancholy pity to regard the brevity of that single interval of happiness. In view of it we have nothing to say of her writings in the year 1850, at the age of thirty-nine, the most gifted Englishwoman of her time was gathered to the tomb. She had lived, she had loved. Her views of life had been somewhat morbid, and her books were very different from what they might have been, had she written them in a sunnier atmosphere and under the influence of affection and a warmer heart. But taken as they are, they will hand down her name and her history to a very distant point in the future.

The Patch of Sunlight.

The day had been overcast; suddenly the sun shone out, and a little patch of sunlight brightened the corner of the carpet. Immediately Tray got up, and with a bound rushed to the bright place and laid himself in it. "There's true philosophy," said George: "only one patch of sunlight in the place, and the sagacious little dog walks out of the shadow and rolls himself round in its brightness. Let not Tray's life be lost upon us, but wherever there shall shine one patch of sunlight, let us enjoy it."

"POISON, SERE."—A writer in the New York Journal of Commerce criticizes the position of the United States in the national health sickness, by saying that a victim of the sickness, after one or two recoveries & as many relapses, was induced to try the electro-chemical baths. After he had left the baths, the plates showed a heavy deposit of vesicles.

REPUBLICAN.

JACKSONVILLE, ALA.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 8, 1887.

FOR GOVERNOR.

A. B. MOORE,

OF BERRY COUNTY.

FOR CONGRESS.

J. L. M. CURRY,

OF TALLADEGA.

We are authorized to announce

MAJ. SPARTAN ALLEN, as a candidate for Representative of Benton County in the next Legislature.

We are authorized to announce

J. J. BAUGH, Esq., as a candidate for Representative of Benton County in the next Legislature.

We are authorized to announce

M. J. TURNLEY, Esq., as a candidate to represent Benton County for a seat in the Lower House of the next Legislature.

4th of July.—There was no public celebration of the late 4th in this place or vicinity; but it is with pleasure that we record the fact, that the proprietors of the various groceries in our village closed their doors throughout the day. This fact is alike honorable to them and creditable to our community. The day passed off in peace and quietude, and the occasion was more honored by this simple acknowledgment and recognition of the blessings entailed by the Declaration of Independence, than it could possibly have been by any boisterous, hacchanian revel, which has been too common throughout the length and breadth of our land.

Death of Hon. F. W. Bowdon.—The Talladega Reporter has received information of the death, in Henderson, Texas, of the Hon. F. W. Bowdon, once a Representative in Congress from this District, and regarded as one of the most eloquent speakers in the State.

Wheat.—We have seen a specimen of wheat raised by Mr. Gideon E. Cant, at Cont's Bend, on Coosa river, opposite Hoke's Bluff Cherokee County, taken from a field of 50 acres, all even and uniform, six feet and a half high, with large beautiful heads. For so large a body, this is the finest we have seen.

There is a good joke connected with a specimen of this wheat, which we must take the liberty to tell. While Mr. Daniel Hoke was passing the Sulphur Springs, with a small bunch tied up, several young men, who were assembled with him, exclaimed, "yonder comes the Governor with his fishing poles, now we have fine sport."

For the Republican.

To the Voters of Benton County.

In answer to the many solicitations I have had to become a candidate at the present election, I must say, that the loss of my companion will prevent me, as my presence is needed at home.

But I will here give my opinions, and what I think is the true policy of the State.

Give no state aid to build Rail Roads—never tax the people to raise money to loan to Rail Road companies; and unless the money in the treasury can be applied to the payment of the state Bonds, reduce the present state tax at least fifty per cent; and if there is money in the treasury to loan, let our Rail Roads have it, and not loan it to other states.

Never put into circulation the old state Bank bills, when received into the treasury, but burn them.

Never change the present mode of distributing the State into Congressional Districts from the white to the black basis.

Dispose with the office of every County superintendent in the state, which will save over thirty thousand dollars, for educating poor children each year.

I believe the all-important question is, to get the State out of debt, and have no large surplus in the treasury, for members of the Legislature to quarrel over, in trying to have called sessions, or create new offices, or open creeks and rivers for boats, with many other things, which never would be thought of, if there were no surplus there.

As my past course in the Legislature has been misrepresented, I publish this to set myself right before the people, always regarding the Constitution which I had sworn to support, as my guide.

MATTHEW ALLEN.

For the Republican.

WHITE PLAINS, ALA., July 3rd, 1887.

COL. W. B. MARTIN.

Dear Sir: Believing

the majority of the citizens of this county, wish you to become a Candidate for the Senate, we solicit you to announce yourself as such. Your past political life is a sufficient guarantee, that their interest will be protected, their rights maintained, and the general interest of the country promoted by your sterling integrity and indomitable talent. Your discharge of duty while acting in the capacity of President of the Senate, to which position you were called by the voice of the wisdom of the Senate, was a manifest declaration of their high opinion of your qualifications as an able and experienced Legislator. The people of this county will rally to your support when called, and be much pleased to see, that, "Richard is himself again!" In conclusion we pledge you, to CHROCOLOKO UNANIMOUS.

EL. Sunny South.—I see in your paper of last week a card from Major David

A. Miller, requesting every candidate for the Legislature to publicly state "whether or not he will support the gallant C. C.

Clay, Jr., for re-election to the United States Senate, if the election should come on at the next session of the Legislature."

I cheerfully reply that, should I be elected to a seat in the next Legislature and the election for a U. S. Senator should come up, I shall vote for Mr. Clay to a certainty.

Very respectfully,

MILES W. ABERNATHY.

July 1st, 1887.

CANE CROP.—Latest accounts from the sugar-growing portions of Louisiana says that the prospects for an abundant cane crop was never better than now. This, together with the fact, that the sugar crop in Porto Rico is a million pounds more this year than in 1886, should induce dealers to dole out something more than a handful for a dollar, and to fill a fellow's molasses jug for something less than his "pile."

Adv. & Geo.

From the Sunny South.

MR. CALDWELL.

Since Southern Rights

Democracy has been so many times and heresies, we deem it nothing but right and fair to propound the following questions to gentlemen who offer themselves as candidates for our suffrages, for the various offices, at the coming August election:

1st. Are you now, or were you ever a member of the self-styled American or Know Nothing party? If so, how long did you remain in that order? Did you or did you not demand your release from the same

2d. In the stormy canvass of 1856, and the no less boisterous one of 1856, did you stand up for the rights of the Constitution and the Union, by opposing with all your might that political heresy called Know Nothingism?

3d. Do you or do you not approve of the policy of the present National Administration as shadowed forth in the Inaugural Address of President Buchanan?

Each candidate is respectfully requested to answer the above questions through the columns of the Sunny South, Republican, or from the stamp. SIGNED,

New York, June 28.—Four serious riots occurred in this city on Sunday last. At the Hudson Park a German picnic was attacked by some rowdies and several of the former were injured.

In the 11th ward a gang of rowdies attacked Capt. McKinley of the 13th ward and several of his men were dangerously injured.

At Williamsburg the German and Irish had a fight, at which three persons were stabbed. The firemen also had a "free fight" at Brooklyn, two rival fire companies had a conflict and several were injured.

Atacapa, June 25.—A Spanish fleet consisting of two steam frigates and five sailing vessels has arrived. Santa Anna has not yet arrived. Markets unchanged.

Costa Rica, June 15.—Canas still held Rivas. San Juan river was in possession of the Costa Ricans, who are collecting important duty.

The English and French protectorate of the Chinese island is confirmed.

Columbia, S. C., June 29.—The venerable Langdon Cheves died on Tuesday last.

New Bedford, June 29.—Capt. Daniel

Drayton committed suicide here last Thursday.

New York, June 20.—The city of Baltimore from Liverpool, and the North Star from Southampton have arrived. Their dates were anticipated.

It is reported that Gen. Martineau is provisional President of Nicaragua and Gen.

Turley is named as Foreign Minister of War.

Washington, June 23.—Gov. Cummings of Utah, takes his family with him to that territory, intending to make it his permanent home.

Col. Jack Hayes, of Texan Ranger celebrity, who is now Surveyor General of California, will probably be transferred to Utah in a similar capacity.

Brigham Young has never recognized the United States surveys, but claims possession of all soil on the territory of Utah. Not one inhabitant holds land derived from a U. S. government title, but even Salt Lake city itself is open to preemption. This is one of the perplexities which the Federal courts of the territory have to deal, together with established titles to lands.

It is expected the troops and civil officers will leave for Utah about the middle of July or the 1st of August.

Gov. Izard has returned as Governor of Nebraska. Hon. Abraham Rencher, of North Carolina, has gone home with the assurance of an appointment of Governor of New Mexico, vice Meriwether resigned.

Washington, June 20.—The Administration does not fully approve of Gov.

Walker's course in Kansas, as it considers he is exceeding his instructions.

The Administration is considering the Spanish and Mexican difficulty.

Jackson, June 23.—The Democratic State Convention, to-day in session in this city under the following nomination: For Governor, Hon. William Mc-

Willie; for Secretary of State, A. B. Dil-worth; Auditor of Public Accounts, Mal-lison McAfee; Treasurer, S. L. Hussey; Attorney General, T. J. Wharton.

Richmond, June 23.—The new school Presbyterian Church here endorses the action of its representatives in the Cleveland Assembly on the slavery questions and appoints delegates to the proposed convention to be held at Washington on the 22d of August.

Troy, N. Y., June 24.—Gen. Wool, U. S. A., is lying at his residence here alarmingly ill.

Concord, June 23.—The personal liberty bill was adopted by the House of Representatives to-day by a vote of 184 against 114. The resolution condemning the Dred Scott decision were then passed.

Alexandria, Va., June 24.—The jew-

Once Again.
R. E. Need would respectfully inform the Ladies and Gentlemen of Jacksonville, and also the people in general, that he has just received, from New York, the most beautiful and life-like style of picture-taking now in existence, either in Europe or America. These pictures are taken on Iron (enamelled) plates; also on Glass, patent leather, paper, &c. They are superior to all other pictures, and give them the appearance of a painting on Ivory. Their durability is unquestionable. The "miserable pictures" is a round, and almost breathing specimen of life; these will be taken in great perfection, and sold at the same rates of the more common ones. Several styles, all brilliant and attractive, will be shown to visitors who may call upon me at my Gallery, for further details. Let all who love the beautiful, come; all are respectfully invited.
My gallery (below stairs) is a well-shaded and beautiful retreat, on Grove street, one block below Andrew Adams residence.
My opening place is Up Stairs, in a large double windowed room, just suited to the purpose.
For abundant reference in regard to my artistic skill call upon the citizens of Jacksonville, and all others who have visited my rooms.

POETRY.
WE ARE SEVEN.
BY W. WORDSWORTH.

A simple child,
That lightly draws its breath,
And feels its life in every limb, What should it know of death?

I met a little cottage girl:
She was eight years old, she said:
Her hair was thick with many a curl That clustered round her head.

She had a rustic, woodland air,
And she was wildly clad:
Her eyes were fair, and very fair, —Her beauty made me glad.

"Sisters and brothers, little maid, How many may you be?"
"How many? Seven in all," she said, And wondering looked at me.

"And who are they? I pray you tell." She answered, "Seven are we;
And two of us at Conway dwell,
And two are gone to sea."

"Two of us in the Churchyard lie, My Sister and my Brother; And in the Churchyard cottage, I Dwell near them with my Mother."

"You run about, my little maid, Your limbs are so alive;
If two are in the Churchyard laid, Then you are only five."

"Their graves are green, they may be seen,"
The little maid replied, "Twelve steps or more from my Mother's Door,"
And they are side by side.

"My stockings there I often knit, My handkerchief there I hem;
And there upon the ground I sit,
And sing a song to them."

"And often after sunset, sir, When it is light and fair, I take my little porringer, And eat my supper there."

"The first that died was sister Jane;
In bed she lay so long;
Till God released her of her pain;
And then she went away."

"So in the Churchyard she was laid;
And when this spring-time dawns, Together round her grave we played, My Brother John and I."

"And when the ground was white with snow, And I could run and slide, My Brother John was forced to go,
And he lies by her side."

"How many are you then," said I,
"If they two are in Heaven?"
"Quick was the little maid's reply,
"O master! we are seven."

"But they are dead; those two are dead!" Their spirits are in Heaven!"
"Twas throwing words away; for still The little maid would have her will,
And said—'Nay, we are seven!'"

The Merry Bells Shall Ring.
The merry bells shall ring,
The little bells shall sing, You smile, but you shall wear Orange blossoms in your hair, Ere long!

Ah me! the bells have rung, Ere long;
But eypress leaf and rue Make a sorry wreath for you Ere long!

Daniel Morgan.
The New York Journal of Commerce has the following article upon this brave soldier of the Revolution:

The name of Daniel Morgan, the celebrated commander of the Virginia riflemen, is a household word in Virginia. His remains repose at Winchester. A Jersey-man by birth, he early emigrated to the Virginia wilds, and was a wagoner in the French war. Tall, muscular, and invul-nerable to all hardships, he was fond of adventure, and for the only soldier, Morgan rejoined with an almost faltering voice: "then do your duty." Murphy ascended a tree, cut away interlaced branches with his hatchet, (this was a part of their varied armor), rested his rifle in a sure place, watched his opportunity, and as soon as the enemy came within a practicable range, Murphy fired, and the gallant Fraser fell mortally wounded, being shot in the center of his body. That fall decided the day.
The enemy soon gave way, and Saratoga became immortal. But Morgan, the rough soldier, was a man of tender feelings, and he almost wept at the deed, and always said it troubled him, because it looked so much like a kind of assassination of a brave and noble officer, though gallant as that officer, who placed himself there to be shot at, and was engaged in shooting others. It was in a similar way that Nelson fell on the deck of the Victory.

Perilous Balloon Ascention—
The Aeronaut dropped into Lake Erie.

On Thursday morning a man, whose name we cannot immediately ascertain, accended from Erie in a balloon, with the intention of crossing over to Canada. He had made about sixty miles of his aerial journey, and had reached within six miles of Grand river on the Canada side, when the wind veered round and blew him down the lake and towards the American shore.
When about twenty miles distant from Long Point he saw the propeller Marie Stewart, and let out the gas in order that he might board the propeller. The unlucky aeronaut was soon immersed to his middle in the water, from which position he was rescued by the boat of the Marie Stewart.
The balloon was made fast to the boat that it might be towed to the propeller, and pressed, but the 'machinery' to fill again, and the wind freshening, the position of the boat and the ball on was changed, and the sailors found themselves flying through the water at the tail of this fau-gled cruiser. The ropes were quickly cut, and the balloon scudded out of sight.
The propeller to the aeronaut into Detroit, from which point he sent a letter by the City of Cleveland to be mailed here to his friends in Erie announcing his arrival.

Wesley.—The Rochester American states that the weevil has made its appearance in the wheat fields of Livingston county, which are now suffering from its ravages. Farmers are of the opinion that this dreaded insect will be found more destructive in the Genesee Valley the present year, than in any year preceding it.— The American says:

"The breadth of wheat sown last fall in the valley of the Genesee, was not more than half what it usually has been, throughout the valley, and the wheat is now in a condition to be attacked by the weevil, and if the evil goes on increasing as it has for the few years past, it is safe to say that it will become absolutely necessary to discontinue wheat growing altogether within a very short period. The glory of Genesee, which is already departing, and is a question whether the ravages so far as to give our farmers the pre-eminence they have heretofore enjoyed, as producers of bread-stuffs. Hereafter they will be compelled to place their reliance upon other and less uncertain crops."

UNHEALTHY HYPNOTISM.—No fact is better established than this, viz: that dwellings so located as not to have the direct rays of the sun, on either side, are not to be compared to those on which the light is freely admitted. There is more sickness in shaded houses than in those about which light and air circulate. But the worst of all houses and the worst where the greatest amount of sickness is recognized, taken from a series of years, will probably be found in such as have basement stories. They cannot be constructed when any of the room for family purposes are below the land or street level, so as not to be objectionable in many respects. Independently of the direct rays of the sun, the light of the moon, and the constant violation of the laws of health in cities, by persisting in the erection of basement stories, and no arguments have been successful in persuading them to keep the kitchens, breakfast and dining rooms above ground. It is quite time that some universal regulations were instituted in reference to this important point. Besides the unhealthy gases, gatherings of dampness, leakages of pipes, cold air under the floors, the concealment of vermin, discoloration of paint, and the difficulty that sooner or later is discoverable in the drainage—the erection of houses with underground basements should not be encouraged.—(Medical World.)

REVENUE OR FORTUNE.—We copy the following from the Wisconsin Free Democrat:

Andrew Jackson was once the sole owner of the tract of land upon which the city of Adrian Michigan, is now situated.
For a long time he was considered the wealthiest man of the city, and his property was estimated at upwards of a million of dollars. We notice in the columns of the Adrian Free-Press an advertisement of a sheriff's sale two columns and a half in length, stating that all the real estate belonging to Andrew J. Comstock will be sold at public auction. Some seven years since, Mr. Comstock sued a poor man for trespass, and recovered a judgment dated, because he had cut off some half-dozen scattered strands along the common, belonging to him. This incident is characteristic of the man; and now, when he himself has become poor, we trust he will receive better treatment from his neighbors.

A MAN TAMED AND FEATHERED.—A man by the name of Hogan, living at Hornellville, N. Y., was, it seems, discovered treating his little girl only two years old, in a most inhuman manner. Her cries having attracted the attention of passers-by, on the 27th ult., attention was given and himself treated to a coat of feathers and feathers on the spot; not a man was found to defend the culprit, but many wished it could have been had from one so richly deserving condign punishment, and many saw the punishment to the effect that if he was found in town after dark, he would experience the additional pleasure of a ride on that classic implement—a rail. The box is left unharmed where it was found together with the string used to tie up the girl's feet, and many go to see them and to pronounce the punishment only too lenient for such unkindness of barbarity.

MAP DOGS AND HYDROPHOBIA.—It is stated that there are a very large number of mad dogs in Chester and Delaware counties, Pa., and that horses, cows and hogs have become rabid from being bitten, and in Philadelphia, it is said, so less than five deaths have occurred from hydrophobia since January.

Awful Scene.
A day or two ago we saw a woman raving with the delirium tremens. She was young, handsome, and a mother. An uncontrollable passion for intoxicating drinks soon made a hell of a once happy home, drove a kind hearted husband and father to despair and death, and brought the wretched mother and two boys to the degradation of public shame and street beggary.
Her ravings were terrible. She fancied herself a fiend in perdition, compelled by a superior power of darkness to thrust her children into fierce flames, and hold them there till their bodies were burnt to a crisp.
Her descriptions of what she saw in her madness and of what she fancied she was obliged to do were awful and indescribable.
Occasionally the wretched being would fly to the farthest corner of the room, uttering piercing screams of agony, and pressing the palms of her hands over her eyes, in a vain attempt to shut out the horrid spectacle presented to her distorted vision, as if impelled by an irresistible power she would rush forward, clutching wildly at what she thought were her children, and with loud onerous plunged them again and again into the furnace of fire, mingling horrid curses and imprecations with the most touching and fervent prayers. This hallucination haunted the miserable creature long after she was rendered powerless by the restraints of the straightjacket, and was succeeded by others, even more terrible in character, and so shocking for detail, which continued until death closed this scene.

J. Boring's Address.
We return our thanks, says the Columbia Times, for a copy of the Address "introductions to the third course of lectures in the Atlanta Medical College, by J. Boring M. D.

The subject of the address is the use of the Tobacco weed, and the Doctor closes with the following hit at "dipping":
"Except one of our sex, rising in alcoholic fumes, and blundering into the ditch, it is hard to conceive of a more disgusting object than that of a woman 'dipping'."

Think of it. A woman a bottle of Macdonald's filthy stick—stained lips—yellow teeth—polluted breath—stained hands—nervous irritability—novel reading—sleepless nights—hysterical spasms, blue devils, hob-goblins and she a wife, a mother.
Confess, if I desired to wither your prospects for all time to come, and to embitter the cup of life, I would ask that such a woman should be yours.

"A few days since, when on board a car with an unusual number of passengers, I saw a young girl of fourteen or fifteen years of age, indulging in the foulest of habits.
The stick (tobacco) used on the occasion was absolutely black—had evidently done good service, and although the operation of dipping, rubbing, sucking and spitting was disgusting beyond endurance, this hopeful soul seemed to become more cheerful under the narcotic, and finally stretched herself on the seat, seemingly insensible to the burning stings of her degrading habit & position. O what a spectacle! who can plead for it! Let the voice of the profession be raised against it, and let example enforce the teaching."

GOT WINSTON'S MANIFESTO.—GOT. Winston has issued a manifesto, in which he says many bold things, and among them, he declares himself a candidate for the United States senate in opposition to Senator Clay. We have not since this morning for this extraordinary document, but will publish it in our next, and will take occasion then to give it a more extended review and show up its inconsistencies.—Selma Sentinel.

SPIRITUALISM IN BOSTON.—A spiritual investigation was held in Boston during Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week, in consequence of the offer of $500 made by the Boston Courier, to be paid upon the exhibition of certain phenomena.
The Courier states that the entire affair was a failure, no manifestations whatever being made, the reason for which is that the operators were over-looked by men of intelligence, education, observation, experience and integrity. The Courier says further, that the final experiment of Saturday evening was a trick of the shallowest conceit and deception, elaborately prepared for deception, but detected and exposed upon the spot, to the utter confusion of all who were engaged in its performance. The editor thinks the whole theory of spiritualism a humbug, and although he admits that many persons of superior mind are now believers in it, he thinks that even these will eventually learn that science is a substantial thing, and that no general error can prevail against the intelligent demonstration of truth.

TOMMY MY SON, what are you going to do with that clock? "Send it to the editor, of course." "But what are you going to send it to the editor for?" "Cause he says, if any body will send him a clock he will send them a copy of his paper." The mother came very near fainting, but retained consciousness enough to ask: "But Tommy, dear, what do you suppose he wants with a clock?" "Well, I don't know," replied the child, "unless it is to knock down subscribers as don't pay for their paper."

"GOMING LEVINS CAST," etc.—A letter to the Tribune from Kansas says: Mark my words! nothing but a sufficient force of the United States army will be able to keep the Constitution in Kansas. The people have determined that if it is assailed at all it must assemble in Missouri, where it belongs. Governor Walker is in the horrors. Some think he will leave Kansas soon. Should he do so, the State Government will be immediately into active operation. The people here are getting tired of this gubernatorial farce. Satriap after satrap has been sent to bolster up the iniquities of these usurpers. The President must not think of sending another.

GALLANT SWIMMING.—A few nights since the steamer Alida, ascending the Ohio near Cottowood Bar, came in collision with the Fashion, descending, sinking the former in a few moments of time. Seeing the danger, a gentleman, whose name is not given, forgetful of the danger himself, hastened to the cabin, picked up a young man, jumped overboard, and with his arms, nearly a mile to the shore. A newly married gentleman did the same thing with his bride.

HEALTH DEPENDS ON PURE BLOOD.

Brandreth's Pills Purify the Blood.

NO DISEASE CAN RESIST THEIR JUDICIOUS USE.

MILD OPERATION WITH SUCCESSFUL EFFECT ARE THE PECULIARITIES OF BRANDRETH'S PILLS. Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile, at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent, but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities, which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure liver complaint, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, pain in the head, heart burn, pain in the breast bone, sudden faintness and costiveness. In brief, Brandreth's Pills work their way to the very roots of the disease, cleansing in their passage, removing every unhealthy accumulation till the blood is purified, the whole system renovated, and the functions of life become a pleasure, where before they had been pain and weary burdens. Often when nothing has relieved vomiting of the most serious character, whether from sea-sickness or otherwise, where the retching has been appalling, a single dose of four BRANDRETH'S PILLS has at once cured the patient, has fallen into a sweet sleep. When the mind cannot collect itself, when the memory fails, when it is an effort to fix the attention, when our sleep is broken and our waking hours harassed with forebodings of evil, then Brandreth's Pills should be used. If these warnings remain unheeded, rheumatism, consumption, disease of the heart, bilious affections, jaundice, dropsies, piles, apoplexies and costiveness will suddenly present themselves. These Brandreth's Pills would have prevented, but nevertheless these they will cure. Use them at once; do not let prejudice prevent the use of this simple but potent remedy.

Brandreth's Theory of Disease.

Never extract blood. Blood is the life. By abstracting it in painful diseases you may occasion the patient's case, but remember, this case is only the reduction or lessening the power to feel. And by thus taking away nature's food, you may prevent her from fully repairing the ravages of inflammation, and convert what might only have been the sickness of a few days or weeks into a chronic affection of months and years.

Brandreth's Pills accord with Nature.

Nature's remedy in fact. What sudden acute or continued pain occurs from any cause, then to insure a quick return to health, you must use Brandreth's Pills, which will soon relieve every organ from undue pressure, and remove those humors whose presence often occasions such terrible suffering.

Before the World 106 Years.

Twenty million boxes sold and the sphere of their usefulness still extending. Ask for them and you will get them. Agents will supply gratis. Beware—All pills with "211 Broadway" on side label are counterfeits. Get the genuine and they will never deceive. July 15, 1857.—3m.

Land for Sale.

THE undersigned offers for sale his tract of land containing 320 ACRES, lying in Benton County four miles south of Jacksonville on the Oxford Road, and the Selma Rail Road running through a portion, but not so as to injure. There is 200 of level land, and the land well timbered with ordinary improvements, as well watered as any place in the County. Four or five unfailing Springs of the purest water, in various parts of the land and plenty of stock water. It is also conveniently situated for range for stock and with many other conveniences too tedious to mention. A bargain may be obtained on this land by application soon and if not sold at private sale, it will be sold to the highest bidder, on the 1st Monday in August next.

WEATHER WISDOM.—A rainbow in the morning gives us the shepherd's warning. That is, if the wind be easterly, because the rainbow shows that the rift cloud is approaching the observer.

A rainbow at night is the shepherd's delight. This is also a good sign, provided the wind is westerly, as it shows that the rift cloud is past and away.

Evening red, and next morning gray are certain signs of a beautiful day.

When the glow worm lights her lamp the air is always damp.

When the cock goes crowing to bed, he certainly rises with a w/e'er head.

When you see a gossamer flying, be sure the air is drying.

When black snails cross your path, black cloud much moisture hath.

When the peacock loudly bawls, soon we'll have both rain and squalls.

When ducks are driving through the barn, that night the weather takes a turn.

If the moon shines like a silver shield, be not afraid to reap your field.

But if she rises haloed round, soon we'll tread an deluged ground.

When rooks are sporting in air, it shows that windy storms are near.

If at the sun rising or setting, the cloud appear of a lurid red color, extending nearly to the zenith, it's a sure sign of storm and gales of wind.—Notes and Queries.

IT MIGHT HAVE BEEN.

What a volume of expression in the words, "it might have been!" They are the words which have been uttered by the youth's quick pulsations.

They are like the spirit of the feast and the king on the throne. Reflection does not sit work amid tears and half broken sighs when the piteous melancholy exclamation bursts forth from a point up spirit longing for expression: "It might have been!" "Every heart as the proverb has it, 'knows its own sorrow.' This is only the same truth expressed in another form.

How often do such expressions as these escape from a disappointed spirit: such a thing had been done—if such a person had called; or said anything, my desire might have been so and so;—and o reflection when the sick heart retires to solitude it cannot help giving vent to the sad words, "It might have been!"

Such thoughts every one can carry to heart. All have such feelings, and experience such sad and terrible moments when the past crowds back on the spirit causing it to cry on in tears. "It might have been!"

The following beautiful poem was written from our favorite correspondant "Lel Leoden" a few days ago while visiting his native home —

"It might have been—it might have been

'Tis: thou but spok'st the word,
 'This heart had sought thy own, my love!
 Like some fad faintid bird!
 It might have been—but all too late, Affection tones from thee!
 Love sings no longer at the gate,
 'O! open wide me!'

'T, might have been—ah! vain that smile!
 The captive bird is free, It heareth not, return my love,
 I open my heart to thee!
 O: far beyond the sunset clouds That cild you mountains breast.

The dove has found a fairer home—A welcome place of rest !

And sitting 'mid the olive leaves That crown my golden nest, I cannot sigh for this my love,
I am so richly blessed, Yet oft fond memory lifts the veil, And lets a glory in,
And casts a halo round the joys, The joy that might have been."

The Bless of a Mentor. I have

The Court of Appeals have finally decided the North America Trust and Banking Company cases, the most expensive legal controversy we have ever conducted in this country.

These suits have been before our Courts more than fifteen years. The pleadings and proofs, as they came before the Court of Appeals, occupied several large print volumes. The entire January term of Court was consumed in the argument

The controversy grew out of certain trust deeds made by the North American Trust and Banking Company, previous to its failure, to Richard M. Blatford and others, trustees, to secure a large indebtedness principally due to Palmers, McKillop and Company, of London, and the Bank of the United States and Girard Bank in Philadelphia.

After the failure of the Company, Daniel Leavitt, who had been appointed receiver, deemed it his duty to institute proceedings in the then Court of Chancery to set aside the trust deeds and have them declared void and invalid. From that time until the present the controversy has been pushed on by Mr. Leavitt with untiring energy, through all the courts, until a signal defeat has finally overtaken him. The judgment of the Supreme Court, which was unanimously pronounced, the trust deeds invalid, has been unanimously confirmed in the decree of the Court of Appeals. This decision now made, involves, we believe, a greater amount of money than any one

True Piety.—The artificial religion of creeds and rituals withers and dies in the hands of the most ardent priests and the most absolute and prosperous monarch while the artless practice of piety and virtue lives with the poor through successive ages. Penal statutes, to suppress it, resemble penal statutes to cleanse the world of violence; fashion may banish them from the burgomaster's garden; but the heaven will unite to nourish them under the shade of a nettle or at the foot of an oak.—Rutinson.

REPUBLICAN.

JACKSONVILLE, ALA.

WEDNESDAY, JULY, 22, 1857.

FOR GOVERNOR.

A. B. MOORE,

OF PERRY COUNTY.

FOR CONGRESS.

J. L. M. CURRY,

Of Talladega.

We are authorized to announce

JOHN GOODEN, Esq., as a candidate for Representative of Randolph County in the next Legislature.

Hon. J. L. M. Curry, the democratic candidate for Congress, who is in the field without opposition, filled his appointment in this place on Thursday last.

He addressed a large assemblage in the Court-house for about one hour, in an eloquent, able, and logical manner, defining most clearly and pointedly, the rights and privileges, duties and powers of the federal and State governments. Mr. Curry's friends, and in fact we may say, the democratic party of the District are justly proud of him; they have the most implicit confidence, not only in his ability and integrity, but in the purity of his political principles and private life, and look forward with pleasing anticipations, to a bright and useful future.

Mail Storm.—We notice in our exchange papers accounts of numerous mail storms the present season, particularly in the States of Georgia, South Carolina and Virginia, and many of them of unusual severity. In one instance in S. C. the storm destroyed the crops for 17 miles in length and two and a half in breadth; and in Fairfax county Virginia, hail fell of enormous size, said to measure from three to eight inches in diameter, breaking windows, killing poultry and destroying crops.

Mr. GEORGE H. FORNEY has been appointed Post Master of this place, in place of Dr. J. Y. NISBET, resigned; and the store of Mr. J. B. & G. H. Forney.

The next session of the Rome Female College, of which an advertisement and call of attention appears in our last paper, will commence on the 10th day of August next.

FIRE.—The kitchen and smoke house of Mr. S. P. HADSON of this place, was consumed by fire, about 2 o'clock, on the morning of the 11th inst. involving a loss in buildings, furniture, provisions, &c., of about $15,000. The dwelling house was very near, and only saved in consequence of the stillness of the night and the great exertions of the persons present.

Emigration.—From the various countries of Europe to the United States, seems to be on the increase. Seven thousand five hundred arrived in one day (1st July), at the single port of New York. We have as yet plenty of room, but at the rate of seven to ten thousand per day, they will soon fill up our vast territories.

CHARLESTON, July 18.—The sales of Cotton up to one o'clock were 2,000 bales, principally at 14 1/2 to 15 cents.

Mr. J. F. GRANT.

Dear Sir:—Please

publish the following letter and list of names for the benefit of those concerned and much obliged.

A. WOODS.

Very Respectfully Yours &c

Burwell Boykin.

The Hon. A. B. MEER contributes to the Mobile Register a glowing sketch of the late

BURWELL BOYKIN, Esq., a native of Kersay district, S. C., but for many years a resident and distinguished citizen of Alabama.

He died on the 21st, ult., having lately completed his forty-fourth year.

Judge MEER, whose acquaintance with the deceased, deserved and demanded the generous yet discriminating tribute he has given, thus writes:

I have known Burwell Boykin for more than a quarter of a century. He came to that institution, a youth of seventeen years, with a strong thirst for learning and distinction. His physiognomy, even then, gave token of the fullness of his intellect, and the force of his character. His high, broad brow, and large dark heavily-cover shadowed eyes, were unmistakable marks of genius and energy. He at once took an equal stand among the most gifted circle of students I have ever known assembled in any American college. The occasion will excuse the mention of a few whose subsequent career have verified their early promise. There were Clay and Clemens, subsequently United States Senators;

William R. Smith and S. W. Inge, Representatives in Congress; G. D. Shorrledge,

Judges; M. A. Baldwin, Attorney General of Alabama, and William A. Elmore, holding the same office in Louisiana; William W. King, also a distinguished lawyer in the latter State; and Robert B. McMillan, now a learned Professor, and John A.

Noyes, an eloquent advocate, both in Tennesssee. Among these and others equally gifted, young Boykin first learned to exercise his powers, and forged the chains of friendship which nought but death could sever. By these and their co-mates he was chosen one of the orators for the 4th of July, 1833, his last year in college, and eloquently did he acquit himself on the occasion giving assurance of future eminence as a speaker and writer.

After leaving the University, he read law and married, but mainly devoted himself to his paternal estate in Dallas county. Very soon the people placed him in the Legislature, where, for his only session, he held a high position. A taste for commercial pursuits, brought him about 1837, to Mobile, where, with the exception of a few brief intervals upon his plantation in Dallas, he has since resided. As a commission merchant, no one in our community ever possessed or deserved more fully the confidence of his fellow citizens. He was deeply imbued with all that peculiar knowledge of the laws of trade and of finance, which constitutes the true enlightenment of the merchant; and in his business transactions, he was always distinguished by liberality, generosity and integrity.

His foresight, judgment and prudence were severely tested in the disastrous crisis which attended his entrance into commercial life; and though he suffered in the general straits of the time, his faculties were so strongly directed as to fit him for future struggles by which he triumphantly overcame all reverses. During the period he was President of the Branch Bank of Alabama and heavily contended with the embarrassments by which it was surrounded. However the policy pursued may have been doubted, the fidelity and integerty of the agent were never questioned.

Col. Boykin was also well known as a politician and public speaker. Personally and locally attached to the Southern School of politics, he took a decided part with the Democratic party in its struggles for a strict construction of the federal constitution, and with pen and tongue nobly vindicated his views. Some of his speeches delivered in this city were very high order of popular eloquence. Attending the Nashville Convention, he joined among the leaders in the deliberations, and delivered a speech,

The Southern Convention.

At a convention of the stockholders of the Ala. and Tenn. River Railroad Company, holden at Columbiana on the 8th day of July, 1857 the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the Company deem it desirable and important that this Company be fully represented at the Southern Commercial Convention, to be held at Knoxville, Tennessee, in August next and for this purpose that the President appoint such number of delegates, as in his judgement will be proper to represent this Company in said Convention.

Resolved, That the President and Directors be, and they are hereby recommended to give all Delegates to said

Convention a free passage over the Railroad of the Company in going to and from the convention.

dent.

L. M. Stitt, Wm. E. Lacey,

A. W. Allen.

Marshall County.—F. P. Porter, Lewis

Wych, E. D. Nichols, Abrahamus.

Resolved, That the President of this Company be requested to act as one of the Delegates to said Convention.

THOS. A. WALKER, Pres't.

A. M. Goodwin, Sec'y.

The English Policy on this Continent.

"Fox," the Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, in his letter of the 6th inst., upon this subject, says:

The intelligence to which I refer-ed in my last, of the declared policy of the British Government to argue no more binding on or near this continent, is fully confirmed. It is the most important declaration, in connection with our relations with Great Britain, that has ever been made, and one that will go far to promote the anicable adjustment of such questions

National Democrats of course, they will secure seats, and the question will be settled for all time. A proslavery legislature will legalize the institution of slavery, and make the holding of slaves, as is now done in some of the southern States the qualification of a voter. The institution is fixed, the people are disfranchised, and the question is permanently settled. The Republican party may triumph in 1860, but the question is beyond the reach of politicians. True, a new set of men, may get into office, but the one hundred and thirty thousand square miles of Kansas is doomed to the bondman's dash, and the last hope of freedom has expired.

I have on hand respectfully call the attention of Southern Planters and Merchants to the

Portable Steam Engines.
Of which he has the Agency in New Orleans. They are so simple in their construction that any negro of ordinary capacity can be taught to run one in a day. For driving light machinery, running cotton gins, plantations saw mills, corn mills, pumping water, extending feed, etc., they cannot be excelled. A striking feature of these engines is, that they cost less than would mules or horses, to do the same amount of work. A pair of horses will readily move them from place to place over any ordinary road. They require no brick-work to set them up, but they are all ready to be put in operation, with the exception of a smoke-pipe or chimney. One kept at work in the subscriber's warehouse every day between 9 and 3 o'clock, and all are invited to call and inspect it. The Planter, especially, should look with pleasure upon the introduction of horse-power in grinding cotton and grinding corn, as the cost of running a 6, 8, or 10 horse Engine is much less per hour than the expense of feeding the same number of horses.
